Join Museum Researcher, Pam Verney, to take a walk through the Bald Hills Cemetery as she exhumes the stories buried with the Pioneers and connects them with the lives of their descendants. You will be able to relax for a “smoko morning tea” with the settlers.

Saturday 25th August

Duration of the walk: 2 hours
Cost per person: $25 which includes the “smoko” with the pioneers.
Numbers are limited so bookings are necessary.

Enclosed shoes are a must.
Bring water and a hat.
And maybe a chair.
No pets.
