

Ngalda Ngadja – A conference to honour two cultures

May 23
State Library of Queensland Australia
$50 – $120

Ngalda Ngadja - "you and I" in the Chepara Yugarapul language of the people of the Moreton Bay Region A conference to honour two cultures - The commemoration of Captain James Cook Rn - His HM Bark Endeavour voyage along the coast of the Chepara people The conference will take place in the auditorium of the State Library of Queensland, registration from 8:15, start 9:00 The conference dinner will be at the Tattersal's Club from 6:30pm Download flyer for speakers and...

To find out more go to the Queensland Historical Society website

<https://queenslandhistory.org/events/cook-250-1770/>