

Saturday 27th March at the Bald Hills Cemetery

Sandgate and District Historical Museum will be “stepping back in time”

Museum researcher, Pam Verney, will lead the walk showing you the resting place of some of Brisbane’s and Sandgate’s significant pioneers and share their stories and how they shaped the town we know today.

The two-hour tour includes a special “smoko” with the settlers.

Amelia Elizabeth McConnel was the first recorded burial at the Bald Hills Cemetery in 1877.

The 2 hour walk will visit 22 gravesites and tell the stories and lives of their pioneers and discover our heritage.

Because of the popularity and success of the Sandgate Historical Museum tours extra tours have been arranged throughout the year. Bookings are required.
