

16 JUNE 1911

A LESS COMPLICATED, MORE
REFINED TIMESANDGATE BAND BALLRESEARCHED BY GRACE BEECHER

The annual ball, progressive euchre and bridge party, in aid of the funds of the Sandgate Town Band, were held last evening in the new Decker Hall. The hall had been tastefully decorated with flags and shrubs, and the ladies' committee, Mesdames J. Lunn, W. H. Shaw, Somerville, Hamilton, Webber, Dyer, Clare, and Hosier, and Misses England, Kelly, and M'Grath, were rewarded with a good attendance; about 100 persons being present. The Town Band played part of the music, the other portion being supplied by Mrs. Crawford (piano), Mr. Law (cornet), and Miss Dyer (violin). Supper was served just after the card playing had finished, after which dancing was continued till after midnight, Mr. W. Clark acting as M.C. The following were the results of the euchre and bridge contests: Bridge, ladies (flower stand, presented by Miss M'Cloy), Mrs. N. Ebenston; gents (pocket wallet), Mr. J. E. S. Plumridge. Euchre, ladies, first (silver-mounted hand mirror, presented by Miss Harper), Mrs. Besley; second (set of glass piano stands, presented by Mr. J. S. Marlon), Miss M'Grath. Gents, first prize (brief bag, presented by Mr. Lawrence), Mr. J. Dougherty, second (tobacco pouch, presented by Ald. J. Gilpin), C. Krimmel. There will be a children's dance, with progressive euchre, this evening, at the same place, under the similar auspices.