

Built for Mr George Hancock by Ossie Brooks, who also built the Bon Accord and Strand Theatres.

The Beach Theatre was the Saturday night 'go-to' place in the 60s for the, then teenage, Baby Boomers who occupied the downstairs canvas front stalls.

The Beach theatre had a search light on the roof which shone vertically to advertise its location possibly inspired by the 20th Century Fox logo.

The theatre was destroyed by fire on 13th April 1978
